

Right: Langdell's Pine Lot in Brookline, Mass.

we would hitch the horse into the buggy and drive out the cartroads and up the old abandoned railroad tracks to that pond up there in Brookline somewhere and have a swim.

Have You?

"Do you have a favorite spot on the river?" we asked Jeff Smith. "Oh, myself. Oh, gee. There are lots of nice spots on that. I like Campbell meadows myself. Well, there is fast water. There are lots of . . . it is nice in a lot of places. Have you ever been down it?"
